Begin your day with quiet reflection, meditation, or journaling in your room or on the patio, followed by a buffet breakfast. We will travel together by van to Rainbow Falls Mountain Trout, a private fishing club, where you will be matched with your personal fly-fishing guide. Spend the morning learning and enjoying fly fishing on the private stream and ponds. You'll work up a hearty appetite for your hot-cooked lunch, prepared stream side. Fishing will continue after lunch, then we'll head back to the Lodge. Relax late afternoon however you wish - enjoy a hot shower, nap, read, or let your muscles unwind through a soothing massage in the privacy of your cabin. We'll gather on the patio for drinks and enjoy a farm-to-table meal featuring grass-fed burgers sourced from Wild Canyon Ranch. We'll share laughs and conversation. After dinner, we'll learn more about the art of fly fishing, then we'll cozy up for fireside drinks and s'mores.

Greet the day with coffee and reflection followed by a buffet breakfast. We will spend another beautiful day fishing at Rainbow Falls Mountain Trout where your fly fishing guide will continue to treat you to personal instruction, suited to your needs. Following a tasty, hot, stream side lunch and some more fishing, we'll say goodbye to our guides and head back to the Lodge. You'll have a short time at the Lodge to relax and pack your swimsuit, yoga clothes, and hiking shoes for Wild Canyon Ranch, where we'll end our day. Enjoy a soak in the Japanese style hot tub (robes and towels provided), an outdoor massage, yoga session on the lawn, explore the historically rich Ranch, or go for a hike! We will socialize over wine and hors' d oeuvres and indulge in a special Celebration Dinner. We will celebrate you and our time together - reflect on the past days, share memories, new friendships, the fish we caught, and the ones that got away! We'll head back to the Lodge and close another memorable day.
